

Quality	The Kabbalah bracelet is hand crafted of pure solid cooper with a layer of 18k (carat) gold and a layer of silver (925). The beautiful rubies are genuine real rubies weighing .27 g each. Each bracelet weighs 1.9 ounces /or 53.864 g each.
Personalization	Like the wearing of a wedding ring, family heirloom or treasured gift, the person wearing the cherished piece and the jewelry become increasingly intertwined with love and blessings. Because of this personal connection it is recommended that the bracelet be worn by only one person.
Care	The bracelet should not be adjusted often. It can be worn in water and can stand up to soap if cleansed with water after exposure. It is not recommended for daily use in water. The bracelet comes with a cloth for cleaning. Please use caution when wearing during exercise or other physical activity because the bracelet is not fastened with a security chain but is open at the bracelet gap. Measurements given, refer to the inside of the bracelet.
Measurements	The 'gap' mentioned refers to the space between the two ends of the bracelet. The ends are not designed to meet. This needs to be taken into account when considering your size.
Size Determination	We suggest that you cut a string or piece of paper to match the measurements given below  so that you may compare it to your wrist. Make sure you consider the 'gap' when determining your size.
